

EtonHouse to Launch Middleton International School in Bangkok:
Bringing Its Proven Educational Excellence to Thailand

Delivering a globally focused, culturally attuned learning experience with a blend of Singapore and international curriculum, a trilingual programme, and international exchange opportunities to Thai and international families seeking high-quality education.

Bangkok, Thailand, December 19, 2025 - The EtonHouse International Education Group today announced the launch of Middleton International School Bangkok (MISB), set to open soon in the Pinklao area (22 Thanon Rung Pracha, Bang Bumru, Bang Phlat, Bangkok 10700), pending approval. Designed for Thai families and expatriates, the school will offer a globally benchmarked and trusted international school programme at moderate fees, making international education more accessible while maintaining the high standards for which EtonHouse is known.

A new value proposition for Thailand's education landscape

As Thailand's education sector continues to evolve, families are increasingly seeking international schools that combine academic rigour, cultural relevance, and accessibility. Middleton International School Bangkok responds to this demand with a globally recognised curriculum that includes the International Primary Curriculum from the UK, Singapore Maths, IGCSE and International A-Levels from Cambridge, with approval processes currently underway. It is delivered by international educators, coupled with an inquiry-based philosophy inspired by the Reggio Emilia approach.

With enrolments opening for Nursery 1 to Grade 4 (from 2.5 to 10 years) and plans to expand progressively to serve students aged up to 18 years, MISB, backed by the trusted EtonHouse brand, will offer a continuous, future-ready education pathway from early years through to pre-university, delivering a high-quality, accessible, and culturally relevant programme to Thailand's evolving education landscape. Fees start from ฿396,000. With the school license currently under the standard approval process, MISB provides families with what has been missing in the current context: a high-quality, globally recognised education that is accessible, culturally relevant, and future-ready.

Academic excellence with well-being at the core

- Inquiry-driven curriculum inspired by the Reggio Emilia approach.
- Emphasis on academic rigour alongside emotional well-being and future-ready learning.
- Environments are state-of-the-art with excellent resources and facilities. Classrooms and learning spaces that are inspired by the rich Thai culture.

Cultural immersion with a global outlook

- A trilingual programme (English, Thai and Mandarin) that celebrates Thai language, culture, and identity while preparing students for global opportunities.
- A rigorous and internationally recognised education pathway trusted by families for over three decades
- Daily Thai language lessons for native speakers and weekly lessons for non-native speakers, promoting both proficiency and appreciation.
- Our Mandarin programme, backed by the EtonHouse Group, a pioneer in delivering an inquiry-based curriculum exclusively in Mandarin in Singapore, equips learners with a strong foundation in one of the world's most widely spoken languages, while fostering an appreciation of Chinese culture.
- An international community with a mix of Thai and expatriate families, fostering intercultural understanding.
- Specialised university counselling with pathways to Singapore national universities as well as the US, UK, Canada, etc.

- Access to EtonHouse's Global Classrooms, connecting students and families across the EtonHouse Group's network of schools across nine countries in Asia, the Middle East and Bhutan. It offers families something truly unique: opportunities for short-term and long-term exchange programmes, cultural immersion trips, and collaborative projects with peers across the region. This unique approach enables globally mobile families to maintain educational continuity while building authentic cross-cultural connections, fostering adaptability, empathy, and global citizenship in every child.

A reputation built on trust and innovation

With nearly three decades of sustained excellence, EtonHouse has grown into a trusted education group known for innovation, inquiry-based learning, and alumni success, with MISB extending this legacy by:

- Leveraging the Singapore brand as a hallmark of rigour and high standards.
- Celebrating alumni achievements as proof points of quality.
- Gaining recognition through research projects, training and professional learning and collaboration with Reggio Children.

Yi-Xian Ng, Group CEO of EtonHouse International Education Group: "Middleton International School Bangkok is a school for families who want more than just academics. It is about giving children a rigorous education while honouring their wellbeing, creativity, and sense of identity. We are committed to making high-quality international education accessible to more families in Thailand. With the strength of the EtonHouse network and our Glocal Classrooms across nine countries, we are confident Middleton will empower students to thrive both locally and globally."

Varong Vongsinudom, Director, EH Middleton Education (Thai) Co. Ltd: "Thai families today are looking for schools that honour our culture and language while opening doors to the world. Middleton International School offers exactly this: a strong trilingual programme, an appreciation for Thai traditions, and internationally recognised pathways that prepare our children for future opportunities. We are excited to see how this school will enrich Thailand's education landscape."
