Senior Principal

Robert Randall
Senior Principal

Robert has been the Principal of EtonHouse International School, Orchard since August 2022 and from August 2026, will take on the role of Senior Principal of both EtonHouse International School, Broadrick and Orchard. He brings over three decades of educational experience in both the UK and Singapore and joined EtonHouse from TanglinTrust School, where over 15 years he successfully held several senior leadership positions, including Head of Sixth Form and Assistant Headteacher. He also served as Deputy Headteacher, responsible for all academic matters in the Senior School. Prior to joining Tanglin Trust, Robert held leadership positions in a leading school in London. His extensive experience in both pastoral and academic leadership, combined with his deep understanding of international education in Singapore, continues to be an invaluable asset as both schools continue to grow, evolve and develop.

Robert's educational philosophy is closely aligned with the EtonHouse ethos and values. He is a motivated and committed senior leader who strongly believes in a values-based education system where students are placed at the heart of the decision-making process. Fundamental to his philosophy is the belief that every young person should be provided with opportunities to become the very best they can be, both in and out of the classroom. He also champions the view that successful schools are happy and thriving learning communities where every child can flourish academically, socially and emotionally.

School Principal

Lyndsey Bryden
Principal

Lyndsey joins EtonHouse Orchard with extensive experience in education and school leadership across the UK and the Middle East. She joins us from an Outstanding school in Abu Dhabi, where she served as Head of Secondary, holding senior leadership responsibility for academic development, pastoral provision, curriculum pathways, assessment, staff development and whole-school improvement. Lyndsey brings with her a strong understanding of both academic and pastoral leadership, as well as experience in international accreditation, inspection, curriculum development and student leadership. Throughout her career, she has been committed to creating learning environments where students are supported to achieve highly, develop confidence, and grow as thoughtful, responsible and internationally minded young people. Her educational philosophy is closely aligned with the EtonHouse ethos and values.

Lyndsey believes that students should be placed at the heart of decision-making and that successful schools are built on strong relationships, high expectations and a genuine sense of community. She believes every young person should be known as an individual and provided with meaningful opportunities to flourish academically, socially and emotionally. Lyndsey is delighted to join the EtonHouse Orchard community and looks forward to working closely with students, families and staff to build on the school's strengths and support every child to be the best they can be.

School Vice Principal

Mike Carrigan
Vice Principal

Mike believes that schools should be exciting places to be, where every decision is driven by what is best for students. He believes in the power of culture and in the participation of all members of the community, students, teachers, and parents alike, as critical to making the best possible school. His educational philosophy is closely aligned with the EtonHouse ethos and values: that successful schools are happy and thriving communities where every child can flourish academically, socially, and emotionally.

Mike holds the National Professional Qualification for Headship and is an accredited IB Workshop Leader.

ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT & HOLISTIC EDUCATION

- An all-through school is a school that comprises multiple phases of education (usually primary and secondary) in a single institution.
- The alignment of the primary and secondary timetables for this academic year has enabled us to create a whole school 'Enrichment hour' from 1100 to 1200 on a Wednesday morning.
- All students and teachers are available and groups are created based upon interest and passions rather than age or year group. There are numerous benefits and opportunities to the students of this time; student to student mentoring, the provision of excellent role models for younger students, leadership and mentoring opportunities to develop confidence and character and an overwhelming sense of community and family.
- Opportunities also exist for primary children to learn in specialist facilities (laboratories) on a regular basis. The core aim is for older students to teach and lead the younger children in a range of academic enrichment activities.
